A New Blackstone.

Stephen G. Sample, who attended the law school of Central University, Danville, last year, this year graduated from the class of the Southern Normal School, at Bowling Green, Ky. In the examination for graduation diplomas Mr. Sample answered correctly every question put to him, and he writes his friends in this neck o' woods that he is now a lawyer in name, if not in "nigh cut" practice. As a student at Hazel Green Academy Steve Sample demonstrated considerable ability as an orator, and if he overcomes his template doing so will send their modesty he will prove a forceful speaker at the bar. Success to him, is the wish of THE HERALD and all his friends.

> A letter from Jimmie Day to his mother brings the news that he has become so preficient in marksmanship that he can hit with his rifle 95 out of 100 English walnuts thrown in the air, and that he has given exhibitions of his prowess in 150 Texas towns. He is traveling for an ammunition firm, and this is how he sells his wares.
